

The 42nd Annual Meeting of the Society for Descriptive Psychology

October 1st-4th, 2020 Presented for CEU credits online via Zoom

The Society for Descriptive Psychology is a Community exploring the Person Concept, an interdependent conceptual framework of Person, Behavior, Language, and World to create common ground for the Human Sciences. The Annual Meeting of the Society is intended to be an opportunity to share advances in and applications of Descriptive Psychology within this community.

In light of ongoing concerns regarding the corona virus and its containment, the SDP Board has decided that our annual conference will for the first time in its history be presented exclusively online via Zoom videoconferencing platform (<https://zoom.us/>). We understand that this annual conference is an important cultural practice of our community, and we intend to preserve the tradition as much as possible while at the same time maintaining the safety of its members. We have made arrangements to offer CEU credits to those who attend and will be announcing the official schedule along with registration information soon...
